

Centennial Scholars Entrance Award 2018/19 - Parent/Guardian Form

Centennial Scholars Entrance Awards (CSEA) assist students in making the transition to UBC from secondary school or another post-secondary institution. The purpose of this program is to financially support academically qualified students who show an interest in joining and contributing to the UBC community, but who would not otherwise be able to attend without significant financial assistance. This program offers entering students renewable awards up to $40,000, payable over four years. There are opportunities for students studying on UBC's Vancouver campus to receive full-ride awards, ranging in value up to the full cost of a student's program and living expenses.

Criteria

The successful candidate:

- Is a strong academic student and meets all UBC admissions requirements
- Demonstrates financial need
- Is a Canadian citizen or permanent resident
- Is entering directly from high school or transferring from another post-secondary institution
- Is applying to a direct entry undergraduate program at UBC and who does not have a previous degree.
- Has a reference from a member of the school or community
