

Karen McKellin International Leader of Tomorrow Award

2020 - 2021 NOMINATION • VANCOUVER CAMPUS

DEADLINE TO SUBMIT PACKAGE: DECEMBER 1, 2019

A high school or college/university may nominate up to a maximum of two students for UBC's Karen McKellin International Leader of Tomorrow (KMILOT) Award for study at UBC's Vancouver campus, one student at Okanagan campus, and one student for the Donald Wehrung International Student Award at either campus.

The KMILOT Award recognizes students who demonstrate superior academic achievement, leadership skills, involvement in student affairs and community service, recognized achievement in fields of endeavour such as the performing arts, sports, debating or creative writing, or external academic competitions and examinations.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

To be considered for the KMILOT Award, the nominee must:

- be an international student, who is neither a Canadian citizen nor a permanent resident of Canada, and who will be studying in Canada on a Canadian Study Permit (visa);
- be entering a UBC undergraduate degree program at the selected campus from a recognized secondary school, or transferring from a recognized college or other university;
- be applying for their first undergraduate degree;
- be admissible to the first choice program they are applying to, including meeting UBC's English Language Admission Standard (visit you.ubc.ca for detailed admissions information);
- have an excellent academic record (achieve all 'A's or equivalent standard);
- be nominated by the academic institution they are currently attending or have recently graduated from (university/college transfer students must be nominated by their university or college);
- demonstrate a significant level of financial need that would otherwise prevent them from pursuing a UBC degree.

KMILOT Award winners will receive an award-level commensurate with their financial need as determined by the costs of their tuition and student fees, plus their living and other related costs at UBC, minus the financial contribution the student and their family can make annually towards these costs. A standard needs-assessment will be made, based on the financial information provided by students and their families.

The KMILOT Award may be renewed for up to three additional years of undergraduate study, or to degree completion, whichever is less, provided the student meets UBC Senate requirements for award renewal, continues to demonstrate financial need, and maintains their Canadian Study Permit (visa).

A student may be nominated for only one award, and will not be considered for the merit-based awards, the Outstanding International Student Award or International Major Entrance Scholarship. Results of the International Scholars competition will be made known by mid-April 2019. The decision of the International Scholars Selection Committee on all nominations is final.

1.2 PROGRAM OF STUDY

The nomination for a KMILOT Award and the application to a UBC undergraduate program are separate processes. Applicants for undergraduate programs at UBC may indicate a first and second choice for a *Program of Study in their online Admission Application, but the KMILOT Award nomination will only be considered in relation to the first choice program, which must be at the Vancouver campus.

A student selected to win a KMILOT Award will not be permitted to change their Program of Study until the end of their first year. A KMILOT Award winner is not permitted to change campuses.

* A Program of Study includes: 1) the Faculty, 2) the bachelor's degree program, and 3) the campus where the Program is offered. (Refer to you.ubc.ca for detailed admission requirements and faculty/program/campus information.)

KMILOT Award funds cannot be applied to pursue joint programs with other academic institutions (for example, the joint UBC/BCIT Bachelor of Science program in Biotechnology or Dual Degree Program at Sciences Po and UBC), or the UBC B + MM dual degree.
