English language requirement

English is the language of instruction at UBC. All prospective students must demonstrate English-language competency prior to admission. There are nine different ways to meet the English Language Admission Standard.

General admission requirements

- Graduation from high school
- Minimum of 70% in Grade 11 or Grade 12 English (or their equivalents)
- At least six academic/non-academic Grade 12 courses (recommended, but not required)

Degree-specific requirements

Deadlines for distributed learning courses

Distributed learning courses are online or distance learning courses offered by a distributed learning provider.

Coursework that is being delivered remotely for COVID-19 safety reasons by your high school are not considered distributed learning or distance learning.

If you have already graduated from a Canadian high school before applying to UBC, you'll find your deadlines for grade submission on our submit your documents page.

If you're taking distributed learning courses to meet your degree requirements, they must be complete by June 30.

For details on how to submit grades for all of your coursework, including distributed learning courses, visit our submit your documents page.

Academic profile

A diverse group of students is shown in a lecture hall. In the foreground, a young woman wearing a white hijab and black-rimmed glasses looks forward with a neutral expression. Behind her, several other students are visible, including a man with glasses and a woman with long brown hair. The background is slightly blurred, emphasizing the woman in the hijab.

Personal profile

Write your Personal Profile

The Personal Profile is a crucial section in your UBC application. This is your chance to tell us about the things that are important to you, your significant achievements, what you've learned from your experiences, and the challenges you've overcome. It's our chance to determine whether you're a good fit for UBC and if you'll receive an entrance scholarship.

The UBC Presidential Scholars Award program offers a limited number of prestigious awards available to the most accomplished and promising Canadian citizens and permanent residents who are entering UBC. These awards recognize students who excel academically and who have demonstrated significant leadership achievements.

High school and CEGEP students who are Canadian citizens and permanent residents are eligible to apply. Students considered for the Presidential Scholars Award typically present a minimum grade average of over 93%. More details can be found at: <https://you.ubc.ca/financial-planning/scholarships-awards-canadian-students/presidential-scholars/>
